

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Classroom Teacher position at Takanini School. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your dynamic educational environment.

My professional background is extensively focused on inclusive education and supporting students with diverse learning needs. Throughout my career, I have developed specialized skills in working with students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My approach centers on creating supportive, adaptive learning environments that enable every child to reach their full potential.

My qualifications, including a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and current New Zealand Teaching Registration, complement my practical experience in curriculum adaptation and individualized learning support. Additionally, my Makaton and Sign Language certifications underscore my commitment to communication accessibility and inclusive teaching practices.

Having worked extensively with students requiring specialized educational approaches, I am passionate about developing innovative strategies that support individual learning styles. My experience in behavior modification and early childhood development has consistently enabled me to create engaging, supportive classroom environments where all students can thrive.

Takanini School's reputation for inclusive and student-centered education deeply resonates with my professional philosophy. I am particularly drawn to your commitment to supporting diverse learning needs and believe my skills would be a valuable addition to your teaching team.

I am eager to discuss how my background and expertise can contribute to your school's educational mission. Thank you for considering my application.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
