

Here's the cover letter:

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the classroom teacher position at Orewa Beach School. With over 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your exceptional educational community.

My professional background is distinguished by extensive experience working with diverse learning needs, particularly supporting students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Bachelor of Education (Foundation Phase) and current NZ Teaching Registration, combined with specialized certifications in Makaton and Sign Language, have equipped me with comprehensive skills in creating inclusive, adaptive learning environments.

Throughout my career, I have consistently demonstrated a commitment to individualized learning and curriculum adaptation. My approach focuses on recognizing each student's unique potential and designing supportive, engaging educational strategies that promote academic and personal growth. My experience in behavior modification and early childhood development allows me to create nurturing classroom atmospheres where all students can thrive.

Orewa Beach School's reputation for inclusive education and student-centered learning deeply resonates with my professional philosophy. I am passionate about creating dynamic, supportive learning spaces that celebrate diversity and empower every student to reach their full potential.

My multilingual background and specialized training in special educational needs position me as a versatile and compassionate educator ready to make a meaningful contribution to your school community.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience align with Orewa Beach School's educational vision.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
