Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Y1-4 teaching position at Southern Cross Campus for the 2026 academic year. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your dynamic educational community.

My professional background is distinguished by extensive work with students with diverse learning needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Bachelor of Education (Foundation Phase) and current NZ Teaching Registration, combined with specialized certifications in Makaton and Sign Language, have equipped me with comprehensive skills in creating inclusive, adaptive learning environments.

Throughout my career, I have consistently demonstrated a commitment to personalized, supportive education. My approach focuses on curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and developing individualized learning strategies that empower students to reach their full potential. My multilingual capabilities in English and Afrikaans further enhance my ability to communicate effectively and build meaningful connections with students and colleagues.

Southern Cross Campus's reputation for inclusive education aligns perfectly with my professional philosophy. I am particularly drawn to your school's commitment to supporting every learner's unique journey and would be thrilled to contribute my specialized skills and passionate teaching approach to your team.

I am confident that my extensive experience, specialized qualifications, and dedication to inclusive education make me an excellent candidate for this position. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my background and skills could benefit Southern Cross Campus.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
