

Here's the cover letter for Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar:

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Numeracy Teacher position at Christ's College, as advertised. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to provide exceptional numeracy instruction and support to your students.

My professional background is particularly well-aligned with Christ's College's commitment to inclusive education. Throughout my career, I have developed specialized expertise in supporting students with diverse learning needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My approach emphasizes curriculum adaptation and individualized learning strategies that enable every student to achieve their mathematical potential.

As a registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring not only extensive international experience but also a deep understanding of contemporary educational practices. My additional certifications in Makaton and Sign Language further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive and accessible learning environments.

My strengths include:

- Comprehensive curriculum development

- Specialized behavior modification techniques

- Adaptive teaching methodologies

- Strong focus on early childhood mathematical development

- Proven track record of supporting students with special educational needs

I am particularly excited about the opportunity to contribute to Christ's College's numeracy program and support your students' mathematical learning journey. My multilingual background and extensive experience make me well-equipped to engage and inspire learners across different learning profiles.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience could contribute to your school's educational objectives.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
