Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Unqualified Infants Teacher position at New Shoots Children's Centre - Sandhurst. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive, nurturing learning environments that support every child's unique developmental journey.

My extensive background in working with children with diverse learning needs - including students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities - has equipped me with specialized skills in curriculum adaptation and individualized learning support. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and current New Zealand Teaching Registration demonstrate my commitment to professional excellence and pedagogical best practices.

Throughout my career, I have developed a holistic approach to early childhood education that emphasizes compassionate, evidence-based teaching strategies. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further underscore my dedication to inclusive communication and ensuring every child can effectively engage with their learning environment.

New Shoots Children's Centre's reputation for innovative, child-centered education deeply resonates with my professional philosophy. I am particularly excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise in early childhood development and create meaningful learning experiences for young learners.

My multilingual background and extensive experience in behavior modification and special educational support make me an ideal candidate for this role. I am committed to fostering an environment where every child feels valued, supported, and empowered to reach their full potential.

I look forward to discussing how my skills and experience align with your team's goals.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
