Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to apply for the Learning Coach position at Ormiston Junior College, and I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my extensive experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education to your dynamic educational environment.

With over 18 years of dedicated teaching experience, I bring a comprehensive background in inclusive education and specialized learning support. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, combined with NZ Teaching Registration, positions me uniquely to support diverse student needs. My expertise in working with students with special educational needs - including autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities - has been a cornerstone of my professional practice.

My professional qualifications extend beyond traditional teaching credentials. I hold Makaton Certification and Sign Language (Module 1 & 2) credentials, which enable me to communicate and support students with diverse communication requirements. My approach to curriculum adaptation and behavior modification has consistently helped students achieve their individual learning potential.

Ormiston Junior College's commitment to inclusive and personalized education resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am passionate about creating supportive, engaging learning environments where every student can thrive, regardless of their individual challenges or learning differences.

My bilingual background in English and Afrikaans, coupled with my extensive special education experience, allows me to bring a nuanced, empathetic approach to teaching. I am committed to ongoing professional development and creating meaningful learning experiences for students.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience align with Ormiston Junior College's educational goals.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
