

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Learning Support Coordinator position at New Windsor School. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to make a meaningful contribution to your school's inclusive learning environment.

My professional background is specifically tailored to supporting students with diverse learning needs. Throughout my career, I have developed comprehensive expertise in working with students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My approach centers on creating individualized learning strategies that empower students to reach their full potential.

Holding a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and current New Zealand Teaching Registration, I bring both academic qualifications and practical skills to this role. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language training (Module 1 & 2) further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication and ensuring every student can effectively engage with their learning environment.

My professional philosophy is rooted in recognizing each student's unique strengths and designing adaptive learning approaches. I have extensive experience in curriculum modification, behavior modification strategies, and creating supportive educational frameworks that enable students with special educational needs to thrive academically and socially.

New Windsor School's reputation for inclusive and student-centered education deeply resonates with my professional values. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your dedicated team and support your students' learning journeys.

I look forward to discussing how my skills and experience align with your school's goals and the specific requirements of this role.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
