

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Learning Support Co-ordinator position at Masterton Intermediate. With over 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive learning environments that support every student's unique educational journey.

My comprehensive background in special educational needs, particularly working with students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, aligns perfectly with the collaborative support requirements of this role. Throughout my career, I have developed expertise in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and personalized learning strategies that empower students to reach their full potential.

As a fully registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring not only extensive international experience but also specialized certifications including Makaton and Sign Language (Modules 1 & 2). These qualifications enable me to communicate effectively and create meaningful connections with students who have diverse communication needs.

My approach to learning support is holistic and student-centered. I excel in developing individualized education plans, collaborating with multidisciplinary teams, and implementing inclusive educational strategies that promote student engagement and academic progress.

Masterton Intermediate's commitment to supporting diverse learners resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my skills and experience to your school's supportive learning community.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my background and expertise can support your students' educational success. Thank you for considering my application.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
