

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my enthusiastic interest in the Learning Support Coordinator position at Tongariro School. With over 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to significantly contribute to your school's inclusive learning environment.

My professional background is deeply rooted in supporting students with diverse learning needs, particularly those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, combined with my current New Zealand Teaching Registration, provides a strong educational foundation for this role. Additionally, my Makaton and Sign Language certifications enable me to communicate effectively with students who have varied communication requirements.

Throughout my career, I have developed comprehensive strategies for curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and personalized learning support. My approach focuses on identifying individual student strengths and creating tailored educational experiences that promote meaningful engagement and academic progress. My experience spans working with students across different developmental stages, always prioritizing their holistic growth and potential.

I am particularly drawn to Tongariro School's commitment to inclusive education and believe my skills align perfectly with your school's educational philosophy. My multicultural background and multilingual capabilities (English and Afrikaans) further enhance my ability to connect with diverse student populations.

I am excited about the opportunity to bring my expertise in special educational needs and passionate commitment to student support to your team. I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my experience and skills can contribute to Tongariro School's learning support objectives.

Thank you for considering my application.

Warm regards,
