Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Primary Teacher position at Hagley School in Christchurch. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your inclusive learning environment.

My professional background is uniquely positioned to support diverse learning needs, with extensive experience working with students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. As a registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring a comprehensive understanding of adaptive teaching strategies and curriculum modification.

My qualifications extend beyond traditional teaching credentials. I hold Makaton Certification and Sign Language modules, which enable me to communicate effectively with students who have diverse communication needs. My approach focuses on creating supportive, engaging learning environments that empower every student to reach their full potential.

Currently based in South Africa, I am actively working with a licensed immigration advisor to ensure a smooth transition to New Zealand and am prepared to relocate within six weeks of job confirmation. My international experience has cultivated a flexible, culturally responsive teaching methodology that I am eager to bring to Hagley School.

I am particularly drawn to Hagley School's commitment to inclusive education and believe my skills in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and specialized learning support would be a valuable addition to your team. My multilingual background in English and Afrikaans further enhances my ability to connect with diverse student populations.

I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my experience and passion for education align with Hagley School's vision.

Kind regards,
