

Here's the cover letter tailored to the specifications:

Tena koe,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Term 2 teaching position at Upper Atiamuri School for Years 5-8. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your school community.

My professional background is deeply rooted in inclusive education, with extensive experience supporting students with diverse learning needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My qualifications, including a Bachelor of Education (Foundation Phase) and current New Zealand Teaching Registration, have equipped me with comprehensive skills in curriculum adaptation and personalized learning strategies.

My teaching philosophy centers on creating supportive, engaging learning environments where every student can thrive. Having worked extensively with students requiring specialized educational support, I excel at developing adaptive teaching approaches that meet individual learning requirements. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication and ensuring all students can access learning opportunities.

The sabbatical cover position at Upper Atiamuri School represents an ideal opportunity to bring my specialized skills and passionate approach to teaching. I am particularly drawn to your school's commitment to supporting diverse learners and believe my background would be a valuable addition to your educational team.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my experience and skills align with your school's needs. Thank you for considering my application.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
