

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the New Entrant Teacher position at Bombay School. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your school's learning community.

My professional background is specifically tailored to supporting young learners, particularly those with diverse learning needs. Throughout my career, I have developed comprehensive skills in inclusive education, specializing in supporting students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further enable me to communicate effectively with children who have varied communication requirements.

As a fully registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I am well-versed in curriculum adaptation and creating supportive, engaging learning environments. My approach prioritizes individual student strengths, implementing personalized strategies that promote academic and social development.

Bombay School's commitment to inclusive and holistic education resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am passionate about nurturing each child's potential, understanding that early educational experiences are critical in shaping lifelong learning attitudes.

My extensive experience in behavior modification, early childhood development, and learning support positions me to effectively support new entrant students during this crucial transition into formal schooling. I am adept at creating nurturing, structured environments that encourage curiosity, confidence, and independent learning.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience align with Bombay School's educational goals. Thank you for considering my application.

Kind regards,
