Dear Hiring Manager

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Y4-6 team leader position at New Windsor School, as advertised. With 18 years of specialized experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to your inclusive learning environment.

My comprehensive background in supporting students with diverse learning needs, including extensive experience with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, aligns perfectly with the holistic educational approach I understand New Windsor School values. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, coupled with my current NZ Teaching Registration, positions me as an ideal candidate for this role.

My professional expertise extends beyond traditional teaching methodologies. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication strategies, ensuring every student can fully engage with the curriculum. I have a proven track record of adapting learning experiences to meet individual student needs, with a particular strength in creating supportive, engaging classroom environments.

I am currently based in South Africa and am working closely with a licensed immigration advisor to ensure a smooth transition to New Zealand. I am available to relocate within six weeks of being offered the position and am deeply committed to bringing my skills and passion for education to your school community.

New Windsor School's reputation for innovative and compassionate teaching resonates strongly with my own educational philosophy. I am eager to contribute to your team and support the academic and personal growth of your students.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to discussing how my skills and experience can contribute to your school.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
