

Here's the cover letter:

Dear Principal and Hiring Committee,

I am writing to apply for the Year 4-5 classroom teacher position at Insoll Avenue School, a role that deeply aligns with my extensive experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education. With 18+ years of dedicated teaching experience, I am passionate about creating inclusive, supportive learning environments that enable every student to thrive.

My professional background is specifically focused on supporting diverse learners, with comprehensive expertise in working with students with special educational needs, including autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My qualifications--a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, current NZ Teaching Registration, and additional certifications in Makaton and Sign Language--demonstrate my commitment to adaptive and inclusive educational practices.

Throughout my career, I have developed robust skills in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and personalized learning strategies. My approach emphasizes individual student strengths, creating tailored educational experiences that promote academic and social development. My experience spans comprehensive learning support, with a proven track record of helping students with diverse needs achieve meaningful educational milestones.

Insoll Avenue School's reputation for educational excellence and commitment to inclusive learning resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise, bringing a holistic, compassionate approach to classroom teaching that supports every student's unique learning journey.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience could contribute to your school community. Thank you for considering my application.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
