Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Y4-8 teaching position at Southern Cross Campus. With over 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive, supportive learning environments that empower every student to reach their full potential.

My extensive background in working with students with diverse learning needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, has equipped me with specialized skills in curriculum adaptation and individualized learning support. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, combined with my current New Zealand Teaching Registration, positions me as a highly qualified and experienced educator committed to excellence in teaching.

Throughout my career, I have developed a comprehensive approach to inclusive education that focuses on strengths-based learning and personalized student support. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to communication accessibility and ensuring that every student can meaningfully engage with their learning environment.

Southern Cross Campus's reputation for innovative and supportive educational practices strongly resonates with my professional philosophy. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise in special educational needs, curriculum development, and behavior modification to your dynamic teaching team.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience align with the needs of Southern Cross Campus. Thank you for considering my application.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
