Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Junior Classroom Teacher position (Y0-3) at Rangitoto School. With over 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your dynamic educational community.

My professional journey has been deeply focused on inclusive education, with extensive experience supporting students with diverse learning needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, complemented by my current NZ Teaching Registration, provides a solid foundation for creating adaptive and supportive learning environments.

My specialized skills include curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and individualized learning support. The Makaton and Sign Language certifications I hold have been instrumental in developing communication strategies for students with complex communication needs. This approach allows me to ensure that every child, regardless of their learning challenges, can fully engage with the curriculum and reach their potential.

Rangitoto School's commitment to inclusive education resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am passionate about creating welcoming, responsive classrooms where every student feels valued, supported, and empowered to learn. My multilingual background and extensive experience in special education enable me to develop innovative, compassionate teaching strategies that meet diverse learning requirements.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience align with Rangitoto School's educational goals. Thank you for considering my application.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
