Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Primary Teacher position at Rangitoto College in Auckland. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your inclusive educational environment.

My extensive background includes specializing in supporting students with diverse learning needs, particularly those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Bachelor of Education (Foundation Phase) and current New Zealand Teaching Registration, combined with my Makaton and Sign Language certifications, position me as a uniquely qualified candidate who can provide comprehensive, adaptive educational support.

Throughout my career, I have developed a deep commitment to inclusive education, with a proven track record of curriculum adaptation and individualized learning strategies. My approach focuses on identifying each student's unique strengths and creating supportive, engaging learning experiences that foster both academic and personal growth.

I am currently based in South Africa and am actively working with a licensed immigration advisor to ensure a smooth transition to New Zealand. I am available to relocate within six weeks of formal employment offer and am fully prepared to bring my international teaching experience to Rangitoto College.

My multilingual background (English and Afrikaans) and extensive experience in special educational needs make me an ideal candidate who can contribute meaningfully to your school's diverse learning community. I am passionate about creating inclusive, nurturing educational environments where every student can thrive.

I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience align with Rangitoto College's educational vision.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
