

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Kaiako position at East Gore School. With over 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your inclusive learning environment.

My professional background is deeply rooted in supporting students with diverse learning needs, particularly those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. Throughout my career, I have developed a comprehensive approach to inclusive education that focuses on individual student strengths, curriculum adaptation, and personalized learning strategies.

My qualifications align closely with the requirements for this role. As a fully registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring both academic preparation and practical experience to the classroom. My additional certifications in Makaton and Sign Language (Modules 1 & 2) further demonstrate my commitment to creating accessible and supportive learning environments for all students.

My professional philosophy centers on recognizing each student's unique potential and providing tailored educational support. I have extensive experience in behavior modification, curriculum adaptation, and developing individualized learning plans that empower students to achieve their maximum potential.

I am particularly drawn to East Gore School's commitment to inclusive education and am eager to contribute my skills to your dynamic teaching team. My bilingual background in English and Afrikaans, combined with my specialized training in special educational needs, positions me as a versatile and compassionate educator.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my experience and passion for inclusive education can contribute to your school's learning community. Thank you for considering my application.

Kind regards,
