Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Learning Coach positions in Health & Physical Education at Ormiston Junior College. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your dynamic educational team.

My professional background is particularly aligned with your requirements, especially in supporting students with diverse learning needs. Throughout my career, I have developed comprehensive strategies for working with students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, creating inclusive and adaptive learning environments that support individual growth and potential.

My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, coupled with my current New Zealand Teaching Registration, provides a solid foundation for effective classroom practice. Additionally, my Makaton and Sign Language certifications have equipped me with specialized communication skills that are invaluable when working with students who have varied learning and communication requirements.

Ormiston Junior College's commitment to inclusive education deeply resonates with my professional philosophy. I am passionate about curriculum adaptation, behavioral modification, and creating supportive learning experiences that enable every student to thrive. My multilingual background and extensive experience in special educational needs have consistently allowed me to develop innovative, person-centered teaching approaches.

I am particularly drawn to your holistic approach to health and physical education and would be thrilled to bring my expertise in early childhood development and learning support to your team. My goal is always to create engaging, supportive, and adaptive learning environments that celebrate each student's unique capabilities.

I look forward to discussing how my skills and experience can contribute to Ormiston Junior College's educational mission.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
