Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the teaching position at Happy Kiddy Warkworth Early Learning Centre. With over 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to contribute meaningfully to your educational team.

My professional journey has been deeply focused on inclusive education, with extensive expertise in supporting students with diverse learning needs. Throughout my career, I have successfully worked with children diagnosed with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, developing personalised learning strategies that promote individual growth and potential. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications further demonstrate my commitment to comprehensive communication and accessibility.

Holding a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and current New Zealand Teaching Registration, I bring a robust academic and professional background to early childhood education. My approach combines evidence-based pedagogical practices with genuine compassion, ensuring that each child receives tailored, supportive learning experiences.

My key strengths include curriculum adaptation, behaviour modification, and creating inclusive classroom environments that celebrate neurodiversity. I am particularly passionate about developing individualised learning plans that empower students to overcome challenges and achieve their personal best.

I am excited about the opportunity to bring my extensive experience and specialised skills to Happy Kiddy Warkworth Early Learning Centre. Your commitment to nurturing young learners aligns perfectly with my professional philosophy and teaching approach.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my background and expertise can contribute to your educational team.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
