

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the classroom teacher position at Churton School. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive, supportive learning environments that empower every child to reach their full potential.

My professional background is specifically aligned with the diverse needs of students in modern educational settings. As a registered teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring extensive expertise in supporting students with special educational needs, including autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication and ensuring every student can fully participate in their learning journey.

Throughout my career, I have developed a comprehensive skill set in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and individualized learning support. My approach focuses on recognizing each student's unique strengths and creating tailored learning strategies that promote academic and personal growth. My experience has taught me that every child has remarkable potential when provided with the right support and understanding.

Churton School's reputation for excellence and commitment to inclusive education resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my skills, enthusiasm, and specialized knowledge to your school community. My background in early childhood development and special educational needs would allow me to make meaningful contributions to your teaching team.

I am confident that my qualifications, extensive experience, and genuine passion for education make me an ideal candidate for this role. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how I can support Churton School's educational mission.

Warm regards,
