

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the teaching position at Kimi Ora School. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive, supportive learning environments for students with diverse educational needs.

My professional background is specifically aligned with supporting students with special educational requirements, including extensive experience working with children with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. As a fully registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring a comprehensive understanding of adaptive learning strategies and inclusive educational practices.

My qualifications extend beyond traditional teaching credentials. I hold Makaton Certification and Sign Language modules, which enable me to communicate effectively with students who have communication challenges. This specialized training, combined with my deep expertise in curriculum adaptation and behavior modification, allows me to develop personalized learning approaches that support each student's unique potential.

Throughout my career, I have consistently demonstrated a commitment to creating nurturing, engaging classroom environments where every student can thrive. My approach focuses on individualized support, recognizing that each child learns differently and requires tailored educational strategies.

Kimi Ora School's reputation for inclusive education deeply resonates with my professional philosophy. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my skills, experience, and genuine passion for supporting students with special educational needs to your school community.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my background and expertise align with Kimi Ora School's educational objectives. Thank you for considering my application.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
