

Here's the cover letter for Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar:

Dear Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Rumaki kaiako - Hakinakina/Hauora position at Western Springs College-Nga Puna o Waiorea. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive, supportive learning environments that empower every student to reach their full potential.

My extensive background in supporting students with diverse learning needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, aligns perfectly with the holistic approach to education that I understand Western Springs College values. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, coupled with my current NZ Teaching Registration, provides a solid foundation for delivering high-quality, adaptive educational experiences.

Throughout my career, I have developed specialized skills in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and individualized learning support. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication and ensuring every student can engage meaningfully in their learning journey.

I am particularly drawn to Western Springs College's reputation for embracing diverse learning styles and supporting students' holistic development. My experience in early childhood development and inclusive education strategies would enable me to contribute significantly to your educational community.

I am excited about the opportunity to bring my multilingual capabilities, specialized training, and passionate teaching approach to your school. I am confident that my skills and experience make me an ideal candidate for this role.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to discussing how I can contribute to Western Springs College-Nga Puna o Waiorea.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
