

Here's the professional cover letter for Henriette Beeslaar:

[Date]

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Learning Support Coordinator position at Otumoetai College, with a focus on junior literacy and numeracy. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to make a meaningful contribution to your learning support team.

My extensive background in working with students with diverse learning needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, has equipped me with specialized skills in curriculum adaptation and inclusive educational strategies. As a registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring not only academic qualifications but also practical expertise in creating supportive, engaging learning environments.

My professional toolkit includes Makaton and Sign Language certifications, which have proven invaluable in developing communication strategies for students with varying abilities. I am particularly passionate about designing personalized learning approaches that empower students to reach their full potential, with a proven track record of successful behavior modification and learning support interventions.

Otumoetai College's commitment to inclusive education resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my skills to support junior students in developing strong literacy and numeracy foundations, particularly for those with additional learning needs.

My multicultural background and bilingual capabilities (English and Afrikaans) further enhance my ability to communicate effectively and sensitively with students, families, and colleagues.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my experience and approach align with Otumoetai College's learning support objectives.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
