

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the He Kaiako position at Portland School Te Kura o Tikorangi. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive, supportive learning environments that empower every student to reach their full potential.

My professional background is deeply rooted in supporting students with diverse learning needs, particularly those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. Throughout my career, I have developed comprehensive strategies for curriculum adaptation and behavior modification that ensure meaningful educational experiences for all learners. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications further demonstrate my commitment to communication accessibility and inclusive teaching practices.

Holding a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and current New Zealand Teaching Registration, I bring both academic expertise and practical skills to my teaching approach. My experience has taught me that every child has unique strengths, and my role is to create tailored learning pathways that celebrate individual capabilities.

I am particularly drawn to Portland School's reputation for inclusive education and am excited about the opportunity to contribute my specialized skills to your learning community. My multilingual background in English and Afrikaans, combined with my extensive experience in special educational needs, positions me to support a diverse student population effectively.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my background and passion for inclusive education align with Portland School's vision. Thank you for considering my application.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
