

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my enthusiastic interest in the Registered ECE Teacher position at Country Gate Early Learning. With over 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident that my expertise and passion for inclusive early childhood education align perfectly with your school's mission.

My professional background is deeply rooted in supporting children with diverse learning needs, particularly those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. Throughout my career, I have developed a comprehensive approach to inclusive education that emphasizes individual strengths, personalized learning strategies, and compassionate support. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications further demonstrate my commitment to effective communication and accessibility for all children.

As a fully registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring not only international experience but also a robust understanding of curriculum adaptation and developmental learning principles. My expertise in behavior modification and early childhood development enables me to create nurturing, engaging learning environments that support each child's unique potential.

Country Gate Early Learning's reputation for inclusive and innovative early childhood education strongly resonates with my professional philosophy. I am particularly excited about the opportunity to contribute my skills to your preschool room, bringing my extensive experience in supporting children with special educational needs.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my background and skills could contribute to your team. Thank you for considering my application.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
