Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Teacher position for high health needs at Central Regional Health School in Horowhenua. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident my expertise aligns perfectly with the unique requirements of this role.

My professional background is specifically tailored to supporting students with diverse learning needs. Throughout my career, I have developed comprehensive expertise in working with students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My approach centers on creating inclusive, adaptive learning environments that empower each student to reach their full potential.

As a professionally registered teacher in New Zealand, holding a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring not only academic qualifications but also practical, specialized skills. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to accessible, communication-focused teaching strategies. I am particularly adept at curriculum adaptation and behavior modification techniques that support complex learning profiles.

Central Regional Health School's commitment to supporting students with high health needs resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am passionate about creating personalized learning experiences that address both educational and holistic developmental requirements. My multilingual background and extensive experience in special education enable me to connect with students in meaningful, supportive ways.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience could contribute to your educational team. Thank you for considering my application.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
