

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Kaiako - Maori Immersion position at Central Normal School. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your inclusive educational environment.

My professional background is deeply rooted in supporting diverse learners, particularly students with special educational needs. Throughout my career, I have developed comprehensive strategies for teaching students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My approach focuses on curriculum adaptation, individualized learning support, and creating inclusive classroom environments that celebrate each student's unique potential.

As a registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring not only extensive qualifications but also a passionate commitment to holistic education. My additional certifications in Makaton and Sign Language (Module 1 & 2) further demonstrate my commitment to accessible and inclusive communication strategies.

I am particularly drawn to Central Normal School's commitment to Maori immersion education. My multicultural background and experience in adapting curriculum to meet diverse learning needs align perfectly with your school's educational philosophy. My skills in behavior modification and early childhood development will be valuable assets in supporting your students' holistic learning journey.

My multilingual capabilities in English and Afrikaans, combined with my extensive experience in special education, position me as an ideal candidate for this role. I am enthusiastic about the opportunity to contribute to your school's mission and support the unique learning needs of your students.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience can contribute to your educational team.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
