

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Samoan bilingual teacher position at Naenae School, a role that perfectly aligns with my extensive background in Foundation Phase and Special Education.

With over 18 years of dedicated teaching experience, I bring a comprehensive skill set in inclusive education and specialized learning support. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, combined with my current New Zealand Teaching Registration, positions me as an ideal candidate for this position. My professional journey has been deeply committed to supporting students with diverse learning needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities.

My professional qualifications extend beyond traditional teaching credentials. I hold Makaton Certification and Sign Language modules, which enable me to communicate effectively with students who have varied communication requirements. These specialized skills have been instrumental in creating adaptive learning environments that celebrate individual potential and promote inclusive educational experiences.

Throughout my career, I have developed robust expertise in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and early childhood development strategies. My multilingual background in English and Afrikaans further enhances my ability to support diverse learning communities, which I believe will be valuable in a bilingual teaching context.

Naenae School's commitment to inclusive education resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my skills, passion, and extensive experience to your educational team, particularly within the Tava'e unit.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my background and expertise can support your school's educational objectives. Thank you for considering my application.

Kind regards,
