

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Special Education Teacher position at Waitaha School. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive, supportive learning environments for students with diverse educational needs.

My professional background has been extensively focused on supporting students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. As a registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring specialized expertise in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and individualized learning strategies. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further enhance my ability to communicate effectively with students who have complex communication needs.

Throughout my career, I have developed a comprehensive approach to special education that prioritizes each student's unique strengths and potential. My experience includes designing personalized learning plans, implementing adaptive teaching techniques, and collaborating closely with multidisciplinary teams to support holistic student development. I am particularly skilled at creating engaging, supportive classroom environments that promote independence, confidence, and academic growth.

Waitaha School's commitment to inclusive education resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am excited by the opportunity to contribute my extensive experience and specialized skills to your dedicated team. My background in early childhood development and learning support aligns perfectly with the nuanced requirements of special education teaching.

I am confident that my qualifications, passion, and proven track record make me an excellent candidate for this position. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my expertise can contribute to the exceptional learning experiences at Waitaha School.

Kind regards,
