

Here's the cover letter for Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar:

[Date]

Dear Principal and Selection Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Kaiako Rumaki syndicate positions at Nawton School. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive, supportive learning environments that nurture every child's unique potential.

My professional background is deeply aligned with the inclusive educational approach I understand Nawton School champions. Holding New Zealand Teaching Registration and a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring extensive expertise in supporting diverse learners, particularly students with special educational needs. My experience spans working with children with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, where I have consistently developed adaptive curriculum strategies and implemented personalized learning approaches.

My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications (Modules 1 & 2) further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication and ensuring every student can fully participate in their learning journey. I am skilled in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and creating supportive educational environments that celebrate individual strengths.

Nawton School's reputation for compassionate, student-centered education strongly resonates with my professional philosophy. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my skills, multilingual capabilities, and deep understanding of early childhood development to your team.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my experience and passion could support Nawton School's educational mission. Thank you for considering my application.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
