

Here's the cover letter:

Dear Principal and Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Y1 new entrant teacher position at Matua Ngaru School. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive, supportive learning environments that nurture every child's potential.

My extensive background in teaching students with diverse learning needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, has equipped me with specialized skills in curriculum adaptation and individualized learning strategies. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, combined with my current New Zealand Teaching Registration, provides a solid foundation for delivering high-quality, responsive education.

My professional expertise is further enhanced by my Makaton and Sign Language certifications, which enable me to communicate effectively with students who have varied communication needs. I pride myself on developing tailored learning approaches that celebrate each student's unique strengths and support their individual learning journey.

Matua Ngaru School's commitment to inclusive education deeply resonates with my professional philosophy. I am excited by the opportunity to contribute my skills, experience, and genuine passion for early childhood education to your dynamic school community. My approach focuses on creating a warm, engaging classroom environment where every child feels valued, supported, and empowered to learn.

I am confident that my extensive experience, specialized qualifications, and dedication to inclusive education make me an ideal candidate for this role. I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my background aligns with Matua Ngaru School's educational vision.

Kind regards,
