

Here's the cover letter:

Dear Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the In-school Learning Support Coordinator position at Elim Christian College. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive, supportive learning environments for students with diverse educational needs.

My comprehensive background in Special Educational Needs, including extensive experience supporting students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, aligns perfectly with the requirements of this role. Throughout my career, I have consistently demonstrated expertise in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and personalized learning strategies that empower students to achieve their full potential.

As a registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring not only academic qualifications but also practical, compassionate approaches to learning support. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language proficiency further enhance my ability to communicate effectively with students who have diverse communication needs.

Elim Christian College's commitment to inclusive education resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am excited by the opportunity to contribute my skills in developing comprehensive learning support frameworks for students from Years 1-9, ensuring every child receives the individualized attention and resources they require to thrive academically and personally.

My multicultural background and bilingual capabilities (English and Afrikaans) enable me to connect with students and colleagues from varied backgrounds, fostering a supportive and understanding learning environment.

I am confident that my experience, qualifications, and genuine passion for special education make me an ideal candidate for this position. I look forward to discussing how I can contribute to Elim Christian College's mission of inclusive, supportive education.

Kind regards,
