

Here's the cover letter for Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar:

Dear Hiring Manager

I am writing to apply for the Teacher/Kaiako position at Carlton School, bringing 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education. My extensive background in inclusive education and specialized teaching approaches makes me an ideal candidate for your school.

Throughout my career, I have developed a profound expertise in supporting students with diverse learning needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, coupled with my current NZ Teaching Registration, provides a robust foundation for creating adaptive, supportive learning environments that enable every student to thrive.

My professional experience has been characterized by a deep commitment to curriculum adaptation and personalized learning strategies. I hold additional certifications in Makaton and Sign Language (Modules 1 & 2), which allow me to communicate effectively with students who have diverse communication requirements. My approach emphasizes behavior modification techniques and early childhood development principles that foster inclusive, supportive classroom dynamics.

I am particularly drawn to Carlton School's reputation for educational excellence and commitment to individual student growth. My multilingual background in English and Afrikaans, combined with my specialized skills, positions me to contribute meaningfully to your educational community.

I am excited about the opportunity to bring my passion for inclusive education and extensive experience to your school. I would welcome the chance to discuss how my skills align with Carlton School's educational vision.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
