

Here's the cover letter:

Dear Hiring Manager

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Kaiako position at Takapuna Learning Space for the upcoming fixed-term placement. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to contribute meaningfully to your inclusive learning environment.

My professional background is deeply rooted in supporting diverse learners, particularly students with special educational needs. Throughout my career, I have developed specialized expertise in working with students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My approach is fundamentally centered on creating adaptive, supportive learning experiences that recognize each student's unique potential.

As a fully registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring comprehensive qualifications and a passion for inclusive education. My additional certifications in Makaton and Sign Language (Modules 1 & 2) further enhance my capacity to communicate and engage with students across different learning profiles.

My experience in curriculum adaptation, behaviour modification, and individualized learning strategies aligns perfectly with the holistic educational approach I understand Takapuna Learning Space values. I am particularly skilled at developing supportive, engaging learning environments that promote student growth and confidence.

I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to your team during this maternity leave placement and am committed to maintaining the high educational standards of your institution. My multilingual background and extensive experience make me a versatile and dedicated educator.

I look forward to discussing how my skills and experience can support your learning community.

Warm regards,
