Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Learning Support Coordinator position at St Peter's College. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to make a meaningful contribution to your inclusive learning environment.

My professional background is deeply rooted in supporting students with diverse learning needs, particularly those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. Throughout my career, I have developed specialized expertise in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and creating supportive learning frameworks that enable every student to achieve their full potential.

My qualifications align perfectly with this role. As a fully registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring both academic preparation and practical skills. My additional certifications in Makaton and Sign Language further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication strategies that support students with varied learning requirements.

St Peter's College's reputation for inclusive education resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am passionate about creating learning environments where every student is valued, supported, and empowered to succeed. My experience in developing individualized learning plans, collaborating with multidisciplinary teams, and implementing targeted intervention strategies would be a significant asset to your learning support program.

I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to St Peter's College and would welcome the chance to discuss how my skills and experience align with your school's vision for exceptional student support.

Thank you for considering my application.

Kind regards,
