

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Learning Support Coordinator position at Somerfield Te Kura Wairepo. With over 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to your inclusive educational environment.

My professional background is specifically aligned with supporting students with diverse learning needs. Throughout my career, I have developed comprehensive strategies for working with students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications have further enhanced my ability to communicate effectively and inclusively with students who have varied communication requirements.

As a registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring a robust understanding of curriculum adaptation and personalized learning approaches. My experience in developing individualized education plans, implementing behavior modification strategies, and creating supportive learning environments has consistently enabled students to achieve meaningful educational outcomes.

Somerfield Te Kura Wairepo's commitment to inclusive education resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am passionate about creating learning spaces where every student can thrive, regardless of their unique challenges. My skills in learning support, combined with my multicultural background and multilingual capabilities, position me as an ideal candidate for this role.

I am particularly enthusiastic about the opportunity to contribute to your school's vision of supporting students with special educational needs. My comprehensive approach to education, rooted in understanding and respect, aligns perfectly with the collaborative and nurturing environment I observe at your institution.

I look forward to discussing how my qualifications and experience can support Somerfield Te Kura Wairepo's learning support objectives.

Warm regards,
