

Here's the cover letter:

Dear Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Kaiako Reo Pakeha position at Te Wharekura o Ruatoki. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive, supportive learning environments that empower every student to reach their full potential.

My professional background uniquely positions me to contribute meaningfully to your educational community. Holding a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and current New Zealand Teaching Registration, I bring extensive expertise in supporting diverse learning needs. My specialized training includes Makaton and Sign Language certifications, which enable me to communicate effectively with students across different communication abilities.

Throughout my career, I have developed a deep understanding of working with students with special educational needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My approach centers on curriculum adaptation, individualized learning strategies, and positive behavior modification techniques that create welcoming, accessible learning spaces.

Te Wharekura o Ruatoki's commitment to holistic education resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am excited by the opportunity to contribute my skills in creating responsive, culturally sensitive learning experiences that honor each student's unique strengths and potential.

My bilingual capabilities in English and Afrikaans, combined with my extensive special education background, allow me to bring a nuanced, empathetic approach to teaching. I am eager to collaborate with your team and contribute to your school's vision of exceptional, inclusive education.

I look forward to discussing how my experience and passion align with Te Wharekura o Ruatoki's educational goals.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
