

Here's the cover letter:

Dear Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Kaiako position at East Gore School. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive, supportive learning environments that enable every child to thrive.

My professional background is particularly aligned with your school's potential needs. As a registered teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I have extensive expertise working with students with diverse learning requirements, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Makaton certification and Sign Language qualifications further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication strategies.

Throughout my career, I have developed comprehensive skills in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and personalized learning support. My approach focuses on recognizing each student's unique strengths and creating tailored educational experiences that promote academic and personal growth. I am adept at developing individualized education plans and collaborating closely with families and support professionals.

East Gore School's reputation for supportive, student-centered education deeply resonates with my professional philosophy. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my skills, experience, and genuine passion for nurturing young learners to your school community.

My New Zealand Teaching Registration and extensive background in special educational needs position me as an ideal candidate who can immediately add value to your team. I am eager to discuss how my experience and skills can support your students' learning journeys.

Thank you for considering my application.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
