

Here's the cover letter:

Subject: Application for New Entrant Teacher Position

Dear Principal and Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the New Entrant Teacher position at Te Karaka Area School. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident that my expertise, qualifications, and passion for inclusive education make me an exceptional candidate for this role.

My professional background is deeply rooted in supporting diverse learners, particularly those with special educational needs. Throughout my career, I have successfully worked with students diagnosed with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, developing tailored learning strategies that promote individual growth and academic success. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication and supporting students with varied learning requirements.

As a fully registered New Zealand teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring a comprehensive understanding of early childhood educational principles and curriculum adaptation. My approach focuses on creating nurturing, engaging learning environments that encourage every child's potential. My experience in behaviour modification and learning support enables me to develop responsive, compassionate teaching strategies that meet each student's unique needs.

Te Karaka Area School's reputation for educational excellence and commitment to student development strongly resonates with my professional philosophy. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my skills and experience to your educational community, supporting new entrants in their critical first steps of formal education.

I look forward to discussing how my background and expertise align with your school's vision and the specific requirements of this position.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
henriettebeeslaar@gmail.com