

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Qualified Relief Teacher position at Montessori Blenheim. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to provide exceptional educational support and inclusive learning experiences for students.

My professional background is distinguished by comprehensive expertise in supporting students with diverse learning needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. Throughout my career, I have developed a deep commitment to inclusive education, consistently adapting curricula and implementing specialized strategies to ensure every child can access meaningful learning opportunities.

My qualifications align perfectly with the requirements of this role. I hold a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and am fully NZ Teaching Registered. Additionally, my Makaton Certification and Sign Language proficiency (Modules 1 & 2) enable me to communicate effectively with students who have varied communication needs.

My approach to teaching is holistic and student-centered. I specialize in behavior modification techniques, early childhood development strategies, and creating supportive learning environments that celebrate individual strengths. My bilingual background in English and Afrikaans further enhances my ability to connect with diverse student populations.

Montessori Blenheim's reputation for progressive, child-centered education particularly excites me. I am passionate about contributing to an environment that values individual learning journeys and promotes inclusive educational practices.

I am eager to discuss how my skills and experience can contribute to your team. Thank you for considering my application.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
