

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Learning Support Coordinator position at Wesley College. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident that my expertise and passion for inclusive education align perfectly with the requirements of this role.

My professional background is characterized by a deep commitment to supporting students with diverse learning needs, including extensive experience working with students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and current New Zealand Teaching Registration demonstrate my professional qualifications and commitment to educational excellence.

Throughout my career, I have developed specialized skills in curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and creating supportive learning environments that enable students with special educational needs to thrive. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications further enhance my ability to communicate and support students with diverse communication requirements.

Wesley College's reputation for inclusive and supportive education resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am particularly excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise in learning support, leveraging my comprehensive understanding of individual learning differences and evidence-based intervention strategies.

My bilingual background in English and Afrikaans, combined with my extensive experience in special education, positions me as a versatile and empathetic educator committed to student success. I am eager to bring my skills, passion, and dedication to your team and contribute to Wesley College's mission of providing exceptional educational support.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my experience and qualifications align with your learning support coordination needs.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
