

Here's the cover letter based on the provided details:

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Classroom Teacher position at St Anne's School in Wanganui. With over 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive, supportive learning environments that enable every child to thrive.

My professional background is deeply rooted in supporting students with diverse learning needs, including extensive experience working with children with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, combined with my current New Zealand Teaching Registration, equips me with the skills and credentials to deliver high-quality, adaptive educational experiences.

Throughout my career, I have developed a comprehensive approach to inclusive education that focuses on individual student strengths, curriculum adaptation, and positive behavior modification. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to effective communication and ensuring all students can fully participate in their learning journey.

St Anne's School's reputation for supporting diverse learners resonates strongly with my professional philosophy. I am excited by the opportunity to contribute my expertise in creating differentiated learning strategies that support each student's unique potential.

My multicultural background and bilingual skills (English and Afrikaans) enable me to connect with students and colleagues from various backgrounds, fostering a collaborative and respectful classroom environment.

I am confident that my extensive experience, specialized skills, and genuine passion for education make me an excellent candidate for this role. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my background aligns with St Anne's educational vision.

Warm regards,
