

Here's the cover letter:

Dear Principal and Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the 0.32 Learning Support Co-ordinator position at Matapu School. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident my expertise in inclusive education and supporting diverse learning needs aligns perfectly with your school's requirements.

My professional background encompasses comprehensive experience working with students with special educational needs, including those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. Through my Bachelor of Education (Foundation Phase) and current New Zealand Teaching Registration, I bring a robust foundation of pedagogical knowledge and practical skills in curriculum adaptation and learning support.

My professional strengths include developing individualised learning strategies, implementing behaviour modification techniques, and creating inclusive classroom environments that support every student's unique potential. My Makaton Certification and Sign Language qualifications further demonstrate my commitment to accessible, communication-focused educational approaches.

Matapu School's reputation for supportive, student-centered learning is particularly appealing to me. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my extensive experience and passionate approach to supporting students with diverse learning requirements.

I am confident that my skills in curriculum modification, behavioural support, and inclusive educational practices would be a valuable asset to your learning support team. I am eager to discuss how my background could contribute to Matapu School's educational mission.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to further discuss how I can support your students' learning journey.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
