Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Primary Teacher position at Tawa School in Wellington. With 18+ years of experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to contribute meaningfully to your school's inclusive learning environment.

My extensive background in supporting students with diverse learning needs, particularly those with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, aligns perfectly with the principles of inclusive education. As a professionally registered teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, I bring a comprehensive understanding of curriculum adaptation and specialized learning support strategies.

Having completed my NZ Teaching Registration and holding additional certifications in Makaton and Sign Language, I am well-equipped to create supportive and engaging learning experiences for all students. My professional approach emphasizes individualized learning, behavioral modification, and creating safe, nurturing classroom environments.

Currently based in South Africa, I am actively working with a licensed immigration advisor to ensure a smooth transition to New Zealand and am available to relocate within six weeks of receiving an offer. My multicultural background and experience in diverse educational settings have prepared me to integrate quickly and effectively into the Tawa School community.

I am particularly drawn to Tawa School's commitment to holistic education and believe my skills in special educational needs and curriculum development would be a valuable asset to your team. I am excited about the opportunity to bring my passion for teaching and extensive experience to your school.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to discussing how my background and skills can contribute to Tawa School's educational mission.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
