

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my keen interest in the Kaiako position at Te Kura Waenga O Rutherford | Rutherford Intermediate School. With 18+ years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive, supportive learning environments that empower every student to reach their full potential.

My extensive background in special educational needs, including working with students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, has equipped me with unique skills in curriculum adaptation and individualized learning strategies. As a professionally registered teacher with a Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase and additional certifications in Makaton and Sign Language, I bring a comprehensive approach to inclusive education.

Throughout my career, I have developed robust expertise in behaviour modification, learning support, and creating adaptive learning environments that celebrate diversity and individual strengths. My approach focuses on understanding each student's unique learning profile and designing personalised educational experiences that promote engagement, confidence, and academic growth.

Rutherford Intermediate School's commitment to holistic student development resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am excited by the opportunity to contribute my skills, experience, and genuine passion for supporting diverse learners to your educational community.

My NZ Teaching Registration and comprehensive qualifications, combined with my multilingual background and extensive special education experience, position me as an ideal candidate for this role. I am eager to bring my expertise, creativity, and compassionate teaching approach to your school.

I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my background and skills align with the needs of Te Kura Waenga O Rutherford.

Warm regards,
