

Dear Hiring Manager

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Y7-8 kaiako Maori position at Sir Edmund Hillary Collegiate Middle School. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident my expertise aligns beautifully with your school's commitment to inclusive, culturally responsive teaching.

My professional background is distinguished by extensive experience supporting learners with diverse educational needs, including students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, combined with NZ Teaching Registration, enables me to design adaptive, engaging learning experiences that celebrate each student's unique potential.

My Makaton and Sign Language certifications have been instrumental in developing inclusive communication strategies. I excel at curriculum adaptation and have a proven track record of creating supportive learning environments where every student can thrive. My approach emphasizes individual strengths, behavioural modification, and holistic developmental support.

Sir Edmund Hillary Collegiate's reputation for innovative, student-centered education deeply resonates with my teaching philosophy. I am passionate about empowering rangatahi to achieve their full potential through culturally sensitive, individually tailored pedagogical approaches.

My multilingual background in English and Afrikaans, coupled with my commitment to understanding and respecting Maori educational traditions, positions me as an ideal candidate for this role. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to your school's learning community and support akonga in their educational journey.

I look forward to discussing how my skills and experience can contribute to Sir Edmund Hillary Collegiate Middle School's mission.

Warm regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
