Dear Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the classroom teacher position at Churton School. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident in my ability to contribute meaningfully to your school's inclusive learning environment.

My professional background is characterized by a deep commitment to supporting diverse learners, particularly students with special educational needs. Having worked extensively with students with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities, I have developed nuanced strategies for curriculum adaptation and personalized learning approaches. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my dedication to ensuring all students can access and engage with educational content.

My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, combined with current New Zealand Teaching Registration, positions me as a qualified and experienced educator ready to make an immediate positive impact. I am passionate about creating supportive, engaging classroom environments that celebrate individual learning differences and promote inclusive education.

My approach integrates evidence-based behavior modification techniques with developmentally appropriate teaching strategies. I excel at designing differentiated learning experiences that support every student's unique potential, ensuring no child is left behind.

Churton School's reputation for educational excellence and commitment to holistic student development strongly resonates with my professional philosophy. I am excited about the opportunity to bring my expertise, enthusiasm, and multicultural background to your teaching team.

I look forward to discussing how my skills and experience align with Churton School's educational goals.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
