

Here's the cover letter:

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Kaiako - mathematics position at Te Aho o Te Kura Pounamu. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am passionate about creating inclusive, adaptive learning environments that support every student's mathematical journey.

My professional background encompasses extensive work with diverse learners, particularly students with special educational needs including autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, coupled with NZ Teaching Registration, provides a robust foundation for delivering high-quality, tailored mathematics instruction.

My specialized skills include curriculum adaptation, behavior modification, and implementing individualized learning strategies. My Makaton and Sign Language certifications further demonstrate my commitment to inclusive communication and ensuring all students can access mathematical concepts effectively.

Throughout my career, I have consistently developed innovative teaching approaches that make mathematics accessible and engaging for students with varied learning profiles. My experience has taught me that every student has unique mathematical potential, and my role is to design learning experiences that unlock their abilities.

Te Aho o Te Kura Pounamu's commitment to inclusive education resonates deeply with my professional philosophy. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise, creativity, and genuine passion for mathematics education to your exceptional team.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience align with your educational objectives.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
