

Here's the cover letter:

Dear Hiring Manager

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Teacher / Kaiako position at Katikati Free Kindergarten. With 18 years of dedicated experience in Foundation Phase and Special Education, I am confident my expertise aligns perfectly with your educational approach and commitment to inclusive learning.

My professional background is characterised by a deep passion for supporting diverse learners, particularly students with special educational needs. Throughout my career, I have developed comprehensive skills in working with children with autism, Down syndrome, ADHD, and intellectual disabilities. My NZ Teaching Registration and Bachelor of Education in Foundation Phase, complemented by Makaton and Sign Language certifications, demonstrate my holistic approach to inclusive education.

My teaching philosophy centers on creating adaptive, supportive learning environments where every child can thrive. I excel in curriculum modification, behaviour modification strategies, and developing individualised learning plans that celebrate each student's unique strengths. My experience spans working with learners across various developmental stages, always prioritising their emotional and educational growth.

Katikati Free Kindergarten's reputation for nurturing young minds resonates deeply with my professional values. I am particularly drawn to your commitment to providing personalised, compassionate early childhood education. My multilingual background and extensive special education experience would contribute meaningfully to your educational team.

I am excited about the opportunity to bring my expertise, passion, and dedication to your kindergarten. I would welcome the chance to discuss how my skills could support your educational goals.

Kind regards,

Henriette Charlotte Beeslaar
